Father, God enlightened me to thee truth of life and living, and thee truth about it; and, that thee truth challenges all, and is challenging to all.

PERSONAL & BIOGRAPHICAL

In 2020, I turned 70 years of age (not 70 years old).

I am college educated, and have a Bachelor's Degree in Communications, from one of the nation's top colleges, have a professional corporate background in Business Management, Marketing and Business Development.

I love books, and learning. I joined the library at the earliest age that a library card could be attained; and, I have read enough books to fill a small library. However, of all the books I've read, there is one book that surpasses all other books for me, that holds my interest and attention ongoing, is the most fascinating, is the book of all books, is in a class by itself, a class of one. It is The Bible. My estimation of The Bible, as a book compared to others, is also literally true of The Bible. It is not merely my personal opinion, or personal taste; it is literally a book of books, inclusively and exclusively. It really is a book that contains books, whereas most books contain chapters. And, The Bible, in addition to The Torah, is in a category by itself; it is the original source of God's Word. And yet, it is the very last book I got around to really appreciating the most of all, the one book that would help change my life, change me the most, and motivate me to make the most life changes.

I am not some kind of religious zealot; as a matter fact, every time I went to Church, or turned to The Church for the solutions to my life's problems, I ended up worse off, and with more problems.

for 40 years, or more, I looked to all the other possible places, and choices, for the answers to my longstanding life's problems. But, I never got thee truth; my suffering did not end.

At long last, at the age of 70, my maturity, my age, my stage and phase of human development finally match. Whereas before, for most of my 70 years, because of ongoing crises, multiple traumas, losses of life and living, my Human Development was stalled, my maturity was stalled, I was stuck in a crisis of ongoing crises. But, not anymore. At long last, my age and my stage of life match.
